

The White House

Office of the Press Secretary

For Immediate Release

March 21, 2011

The President's Travel to Poland

The President will visit Poland as part of his May 23-28 trip to Europe, during which he will also visit Ireland, the United Kingdom and France. In Poland he looks forward to reciprocating the visit of President Komorowski, whom he welcomed to the Oval Office in December 2010, as well as meeting Prime Minister Tusk. The President's trip will further strengthen the close alliance between United States and Poland.